16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father." - Mt 13:43a

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 19, 2026

In his patience, the Lord allows both weeds and wheat to grow together, both saints and sinners to respond to salvation in the Kingdom. This Lord is good and forgiving, lenient to all, desiring repentance for our sins. May the Spirit assist us in our weakness.

Theme: God is the Final Answer

16th Sunday of Ordinary Time Year A, July 19, 2026

First Reading: Wisdom 12:13, 16-19, Second Reading: Romans 8 :26-27, Gospel: Matthew 13:24-43

We are presented with the Book of Wisdom in the first reading of today. It is one of the last Old Testament books to be written and it gives a good reflection on final judgment, resurrection, and eternal life. The Book of Wisdom treats topics like immortality, righteousness and encourages us that God's wisdom can be gained through a life of humility. God grants wisdom to His children who are humble and obedient. The part of the book we read today reflects on God's mercy and how God judges with clemency and gentleness.

The nature of our God is mercy, and He does not condemn anybody but wants us to approach Him with an open and repentant heart. The Wisdom Book dwells on this mercy of God because He wants everyone to experience salvation that God offers. The message of hope we would take home is that God's mercy is unlimited and He wants us to be kind, gentle, and hopeful. The second reading continues from where the first reading stopped; that the spirit of God comes to our aid in weakness. There may be that desire to pray but often the body is weak and then the spirit intercedes for us in our weakness. The spirit of God is always around to encourage us in our life's daily struggle and challenges.

The gospel message tells the story of a farmer who sowed good seed in his vineyard and at night an enemy came and sowed weed. The servant wanted to go and pull out the weed, but the master told them to allow both the weed and wheat to grow together until harvest time when it will be visible to separate the weed from the wheat. A very important point too is that whereas weeds can never become wheat, bad people can become good and in the history of the world, many a great sinner have become a great saint because of the grace of almighty God. Jesus wants to teach us that God permits both the sinners and saints to grow together to offer the sinner the opportunity to repent. It is not our business to conclude that certain people are weed in the sight of God. A sinner today may turn around to be a saint tomorrow while a good person today may fall away when confronted with challenges and vicissitudes of life. The central message of the gospel is that time is the only thing that can determine how steadfast we are in our faith. Let us not be quick to judge and condemn other people but give them opportunity for change. The church of God is made up of saints and sinners, and it is only with patience and time that the identity of each is revealed.

Fr. Elario Zambakari

Thinking about becoming Catholic? Do you know someone who is thinking about the Catholic faith?

Are you an adult Catholic who still needs the sacraments of Holy Eucharist or Confirmation? A yes to any of the above means that we would like to invite you to the OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults). The OCIA is the official opportunity for inquiry into the Catholic Faith. We present Catholic teaching and faith formation. You get to ask all your questions. For more information or to get started please call Martha in the office at 928-855-2685.

Communion for the Homebound

Our Homebound Ministry provides communion to those who are sick and homebound and unable to attend Church services.

To request the Homebound Ministry to bring communion to your loved one, please contact Martha at the parish office at 928-855-2685.

"Oh no, fellas! I didn't mean THAT kind of canon!"

The "Canon of Sacred Scripture" is the list of books in the Bible that the Catholic Church recognizes as inspired by the Holy Spirit.

Prayer to Saint Michael, the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Welcome Our New Teachers!

We are excited to welcome Ms. Hernandez and Ms. Rodolfo to the Our Lady Catholic School family! We are blessed to have them join our team and look forward to the knowledge, faith, and enthusiasm they will bring to our students. Please join us in giving them a warm welcome!

Middle school math 6th grade homeroom Ms. Hernandez

I hold a Bachelor's Degree in Mathematics and Science Teaching major in Mathematics and a Master's Degree in Education, major also in Mathematics. I have been teaching secondary Mathematics in the Philippines for almost 18 years under the Department of Education.

In my free time, I enjoy watching TV series from different genres and learning about different cultures. I also love spending quality time with my family and friends and traveling whenever I have the chance. I enjoy reading and learning new things, discovering places, and foods.

Another hobby of mine is baking. I'm not a professional baker, but I enjoy making baked goods for my family and friends, and it always makes me happy to share something I made with them.

1st Grade Ms. Rodolfo

I am a Grade School Teacher with nearly 19 years of teaching experience in grades 1st-3rd.

I hold a Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and have served as a Subject Area Coordinator for five years.

My experience includes teaching Reading, Language, Math, and Science in a Catholic school setting.

I enjoy singing, reading, traveling, spending quality time with my family, and decorating my classroom to create a warm, welcoming, and engaging learning environment for my students. I also enjoy exploring new teaching ideas and designing creative, hands-on learning activities.

I look forward to meeting everyone and contributing to the school community.
