Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 26, 2026

The person with true wisdom, like Solomon, will seek the reign of God and treasure it above all else. It is more precious than gold and silver. Thus one becomes conformed to the image of Christ, the Son.

Theme: The Courage to Give Up All to Possess Eternal Treasure

17th Sunday of Ordinary Time Year A, July 26, 2026

First Reading: 1Kings 3:5,7-12, Second Reading: Romans 8:28-30, Gospel: Matthew 13:44-52

What particular gift would you ask of God if he spoke to you in a dream tonight and gave you your choice? Many would ask for badly needed health for themselves or for a family member. Others may ask for financial help just to pay off debt and keep the family comfortable. Others would wish to live for many years. But those who would ask for the gift of true wisdom to govern their earthly lives according to justice and charity may be a small percentage. Yet this is the only gift that has eternal value.

With these three parables today, we complete the chapter we began two Sundays ago. The parables of the treasure and of the pearl could be classified as twins, since they basically teach us the same thing: a man discovers a treasure and sells all he owns to buy it.

But there are a few significant differences between the two parables.

The readings invite us as Christians to imitate these two wise people in the gospel and surrender all possessions, if necessary, to gain eternal life. Heaven is within the reach of all who follow the ordinary vocation of life and partake of the world's joys and pleasures within the framework of God's commandment. We should choose heaven as our greatest treasure in life, and by choosing heaven, our lives would be regulated by the wisdom and commandments of God. If we have everything we need in life and fail to reach heaven, our life would not have been complete.

Smart Stewardship in Every Season

Summer often gives us a chance to slow down, reflect, and consider how we are stewarding the blessings God has entrusted to us. As part of that reflection, Our Lady of the Lake Parish invites you to explore strategic and tax-wise giving options that extend your support for our parish family beyond the traditional collection plate.

By utilizing your mid-year assets, you can maximize your personal tax savings while directly strengthening our church ministries. Consider these four smart alternatives:

Gifts of Stock: Avoid capital gains tax and deduct the full market value.

IRA Distributions (QCDs): Tax-free giving directly from your IRA for those 70.5+.

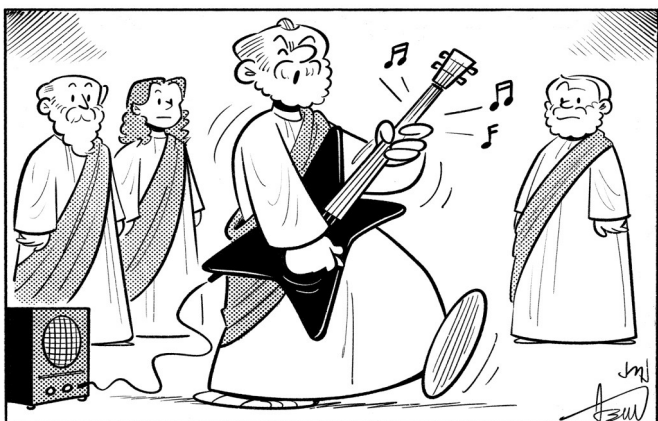

Donor-Advised Funds (DAF): Recommend seamless, tax-free grants to the parish.

Cryptocurrency: Bypass capital gains tax by transferring digital assets securely.

"What is St. Peter's favorite kind of music?"

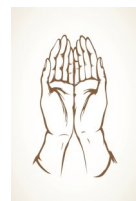

"Rock!"

Jesus renamed Simon to "Peter," a name that means "Rock." Biblically, name changes mark a significant moment in a life of faith.

Our Lady's School Corner

Forming Courageous Catholics in the Virtues of Christ

Dear Parish Family,

As summer comes to a close, we are excited to prepare for another wonderful school year at our school. We are grateful for your continued prayers, generosity, and support, which make so many great opportunities possible for our students.

This summer has been a season of growth and preparation. We are excited to partner with Telesis to enhance the educational experience we provide our students. We have also partnered with our local county library, giving our students access to additional learning resources and encouraging a lifelong love of reading.

We are also pleased to welcome two outstanding educators to our school community. Joining our faculty are Ms. Aven Rodolfo, our new first-grade teacher, and Mrs. Mary Ann Hernandez, our new middle school math teacher. Together, they bring more than 30 years of teaching experience, and we are thrilled to have them share their knowledge, dedication, and passion for Catholic education with our students.

Another exciting addition this year is the launch of our school art program. We look forward to seeing our students explore their creativity while developing new skills and expressing their God-given talents.

Our faculty and staff have been hard at work preparing classrooms and welcoming spaces, and we are eagerly anticipating the return of our students on July 30th. We know this school year will be filled with opportunities for faith, learning, and growth.

Thank you to everyone who has supported our school through monetary donations, gift cards, and other acts of kindness throughout the summer. Your generosity has helped us prepare for the new school year and has been a tremendous blessing to our school community.

Please know that you are in our prayers, and we ask that you continue to keep our students, families, faculty, and staff in your prayers as we begin another year together. We are grateful to be part of such a caring and faithful parish family.

May God bless you abundantly.

Blessings to you and yours,

Brittney Deglado

Mission for the Week

Put God's kingdom first.

Sharing the Gospel

Your toys can break. Your books can tear. Your clothes can shrink and stain. Things don't last forever. The kingdom of heaven does last forever. It is like a treasure. Heaven is worth more than anything you own. In both stories, the person who found the treasure sold everything else just to be a part of God's kingdom.
